

CLASS 4 NEWS

HOT OFF THE PRESS

Welcome to May

Class 4 was busy working on crafts for earth day and education week. Note: All crafts will be on their way home very soon. We continued to work on our "Stop" and "Go" activities incorporating those core words into our Running Races. This is a game where I would run with one student while the other students took turns telling me to "Stop" or "Go". The children absolutely loved this game, so we will continue with this activity through May.

Class 4 had a great experience at Colasanti's, so great that Mrs. T wanted to adopt a class goat. I did not have Dave and Tracy's vote on this one, so maybe we can settle on a class fish!

I also introduced the children to some flannel stories last week and we will continue with this on Fridays. Using Flannel stories is a great way to encourage the children to use core words such as "Turn", "More", "Up" and "On".

This month we are looking forward to spending more time outdoors. I was hoping for this to occur last month, but the weather would not cooperate. We were able to get one scavenger hunt in, which was a big hit with the children. We will continue with more scavenger hunts focusing on "In", "Out", "Turn", "Left" and "Right". We will also bring Class 4 outside to work on our Occupational Therapy goals and our centres. It's a great practice for the transition from inside to outside and back in. I also would like to continue with some fun "On" and "Off" activities. I was thinking about a smoothie day where the children would take turns turning the blender "On" and "Off".

Communication Corner

When turning light switches "On" or "Off" you can ask your child what should we do now, turn the lights "On" or "Off"? Another fun idea is to ask your child what they should do before removing their coat? Should we leave the coat "On" or should we take our coat "Off"?
